

Call for Exhibition Proposals – Community Gallery

Artworks, a non-profit gallery in Trenton, New Jersey's Capital city, requests proposals for exhibitions in our Community Gallery.

Four-week individual and group exhibitions may include 2 or 3-dimensional work in all media, excluding installations. Gallery space is approximately 85 running feet, with indirect natural and track lighting. Artists may be professional or self-taught. Preference will be given to emerging artists, students and Trenton-area community organizations, but anyone may apply.

- Group and solo exhibitions are welcome to apply, submitted by a representative curator/project director .
- A representative curator/project director can be the artist proposing a solo exhibition for him/herself, a representative artist proposing an exhibition as part of a group OR independent curator(s) proposing an exhibition on behalf of an artist or group of artists.
- Entries may be either existing or proposed work.
- Proposals should be in consideration of Artworks' Community Gallery space. Site-visits are strongly encouraged.

Please note:

- Preference will be given to artists working within 75-miles of Trenton with highest priority to those in the greater Trenton area, but all may apply.
- Curator and artists must supply framing, unusual installation materials, incoming and outgoing transportation, and insurance for objects in transit.
- Curator/Artist/Organization will be responsible for any opening or closing reception, which will be scheduled after discussion with the Artworks Director.
- Artworks will promote the exhibit with press releases, publicity on its web site and mass emails.
- Insurance will be provided for work while in the gallery.
- Insurance valuations must be provided for each work to be exhibited, in advance of installation.
- The gallery's commission will be 30% of sales.
